Truck Ban Lifted In Strike Move

Alberta Cabinet Suspends Ruling Under Sabbath Law

All trucks in Alberta will be allowed to operate on Sunday during the current railway strike.

In an emergency order, the Alberta cabinet agreed to suspend, for the duration of the strike, the provisions under the Lord's Day Act which prohibit trucks from operating on Sunday.

Hon. Lucien M. Bouchard, attorney-general, announced the government's emergency move, aimed at facilitating the movement of freight by truck while the railways are stopped by a general strike.

Edmonton business and labor leaders today voiced outpouring of similar divergent views on the general railway strike, now paralysing many local industries for the fourth day.

The Chamber of Commerce urged the government "to immediately devise means of providing adequate safeguards to avoid any possible recurrence in the future of similar circumstances, and operations providing service to the public."

In the opinion of the Chamber, the lifting of the railway management appeared to be a reasonable one, representing a substantial gain to employers, the great relief, issued after a meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors, stated.

RIGHT RECOGNITION
As a matter of principle, the Chamber recognizes the right of labor to strike action to secure a fair and reasonable return for its services, the statement continued.

The Chamber "regretted" the unions' unwillingness to accept the railway offer, particularly in view of the "desire to win the railway management was prepared to accept in meeting labor's request."

The same time, the Chamber in Edmonton heaped criticism on the federal government's failure to meet more effectively the national railway strike, and aimed their fire, too, at C.N.R. head David Gordon.

"The men on the picket line are disappointed with the government . . . and they are pretty much in a lull," said Gordon.

These remarks, reported on labor leaders' opinions on page 23, came while the 1,800 picketers on duty were their first ration of coffee and doughnuts this morning, news of the government's decision to lift the truck ban.

Priority Systems Set For Airline Passengers

OTTAWA, August 25.—(UPI)—The government yesterday granted the department of transport power to set up and control priority systems for the movement of goods and passengers on air Canadian airlines during the railway strike.

Seamen of Third Line Go On Strike at Coast

Royalite Pays Record Oil Parcel Price

More than eight million dollars rolled into the Alberta treasury yesterday as an independent Calgary oil company paid the largest lump sum ever spent by one company in the purchase of Redwater oil land.

Royalite Oil Company Ltd. of Calgary paid $1,277,000 for one-quarter section of land in the Redwater field, $1,628,000 for another, $1,422,500 for a third, and $225,000 for the fourth.

All are located on the southeast flank of the 600-well field.

Offering 13 parcels of land in its latest auction, the Alberta government netted $4,703,250. This brought the province's revenue from oil leases to $22,326,480 for the current fiscal year, or more than $22,000,000 for 1959.

Not Highest
But Royalite's top price failed to touch that paid for another quarter section of Redwater land sold in June 29 sale.

At that time Federal Petroleum and Associates paid $1,553,000 for a quarter section.

Other purchasers of Redwater land in yesterday's sale were Texaco Exploration Company, which paid $622,000 for one quarter section, and Pacific Petroleum Ltd., which bought one-quarter for $277,174 and another for $225,000.

Other purchases of Redwater land in yesterday's sale were Texaco Exploration Company, which paid $622,000 for one quarter section, and Pacific Petroleum Ltd., which bought one-quarter for $277,174 and another for $225,000.

These were bought by Bay Petroleum Corporation, which paid $133,250, $141,775 and $58,660 for the respective parcels. The three parcels are located on the west side of the Redwater field.

Two other quarter sections, both in the southeast corner of the Redwater field, were bought by Texaco Exploration Co., which paid $228,000 each for them.

In addition there were 31 smaller parcels that totalled $191,471.

STRODE SURE FOR CALGARY
CALGARY, Aug. 25.—(UPI)—Woody Strode, powerful peace-catching end of the Calgary Stampeders, arrived today from the west coast by plane and planned to leave immediately for Regina to join the club in its league-opening game with Saskatchewan Roughriders tomorrow.

Strode said he also planned to play in the game at Winnipeg Monday night.

Strode's position with the Calgary club had been uncertain. The stampeders announced earlier that he had an "attractive offer" of a professional wrestling contract.

When the union leaders emerged before noon from their talks with the Prime Minister they evaded reporters' questions.

"We were asked to see the Prime Minister and we saw him," said Frank Hall, spokesman in the negotiations for 15 minutes.

A. B. Mosher, negotiation leader for the two Canadian unions in the railroad strike, said he was "not in a position to make a statement."

After coming out of the prime minister's office, Mr. Hall made no statement.

Asked how long the union heads would remain in Ottawa, Mr. Hall said he would leave tonight.

After the union leaders had left, the prime minister came out of his office briefly at 12:25 p.m. and told reporters he had no statement. He said he would be meeting heads of the railways at 4 p.m. but he did not know if he would have a statement after that meeting.

DISPLACEMENT
Rules for displacing passengers were outlined.

Passengers travelling for pleasure on the train or on the ferry, would be the first to be displaced.

Passengers travelling on private business would be next. Perishable goods and other business would follow.

Passengers travelling on public business of an urgent nature, or for national defence would be the last.

Long-distance travellers and those who had given preference to long-distance travel would be the last to be displaced.

Passengers and goods named by the priorities officer as to be displaced would be notified in the public relations office.

Union Steamships was the last major line operating on the coast. The strike left the 15,000 British Columbians isolated in 100 settlements along the northern coast.

Last-minute negotiations for a settlement collapsed and the men went out at the strike deadline today.

Capt. Gerald McBean, managing director of Union Steamships, said he had telephoned Harold Banks, Canadian director of the Seafarers' International Union (AFL), at Montreal in a last effort to postpone the strike at least until the fall when the union was set to meet.

Capt. McBean quoted Banks as saying nothing could be done at the strike vote had showed the men overwhelmingly in favor of a walkout. The SIU here said 90 per cent of the seamen voted for strike action.

The SIU is making a wage increase of $3 monthly. Basic wage of $144 a month. The union also asks $1.25 hourly overtime rates compared to the current $1.00.

The seamen's strike brought immediate cancellation of all regular passenger trains on the provincial Pacific Great Eastern Railway. The shipping line had been carrying passengers and freight to the PGE railroad at Squamish, 40 miles from here.

HEAVY FIGHTING

It was in that sector that Allied tanks, planes and troops hammered in two to three times as many shells which had wedged into the line at two places. The North Koreans seized Mt. Pugu, 15 miles northeast of Taegu, and in a narrow sector 24 miles southeast of Taegu denied the Korean republicans defenses.

MacArthur reported that about 150 Communist soldiers survived a big force which had appeared within 10 miles of Taegu, had been herded into a walled city about nine miles north of Taegu.

Farther east, Korean Republicans opened a broad attack above Pohang, aimed at eliminating the threat to the east coast port and its nearby airfield, the best in the allied beachhead. The right and centre of the two South Korean divisions pressed forward. While the left flank ran into a counter-attack which showed it back.

At the other end of the beachhead, the U.S. 3rd Infantry Division advanced under cover of an artillery barrage and shored 300 Communist off a strategic hill in that south coast sector, the North Koreans continued building up forces for an indirect push on Pusan, some 35 miles to the east. Field dispatches had anticipated the offensive for two days.

SHORTAGE INDICATED
MacArthur's communication reported that at his scout spotted four machine-gunned artillery pieces near the junction of the Nakdong and Nam rivers west of Pusan. Such activity might indicate that the Communists were running out of gas. Allied planes have hammered persistently at fuel plants in Korea and the supply lines over which the gas must move to the front.

POINTERS for car buyers

The Simple Truth About "EASY TERMS"

It is often more convenient to buy a car out of income, rather than pay cash.

But to do so involves additional cost. So it is important to keep this cost as low as possible. For instance, twenty-four months of financing service costs twice as much as twelve.

The cheapest and best way to buy on time payments is to pay all you can down and pay as much per month as you can comfortably afford.

Don't be misled by so-called "Easy" payments. Take time to check on all costs as well as services proposed when you buy.

STRIKE BRIEFS

Doughnuts, Coffee For Picketers

Strike picketers are now being served coffee and doughnuts and an Edmonton hotting firm is donating soft drinks.

Entertainment for the weekend is being planned by the central strike committee.

Canadian National Railway officials in Edmonton asked for—and received—permission today to send out a small crew to repair a damaged railway crossing.

Chairman of the striking international union's central committee said the permit was granted because the interest of public safety.

The specific crossing was identified.

Long distance telephone calls are up to 10 percent in Edmonton since the start of the rail strike.

During peak hours there have been delays of from three to six hours but Alberta Government Telephone officials say increased business is being successfully handled.

Rail strike will hold up construction of Western Canadian Union Co. gas pipeline to Dawson Creek, four-inch pipe for the line was being laid before the strike.

Contract for the line has been let to General Gravel and Surfacing Co. of Calgary, Calgary.

Harvest help in Alberta will be adequate despite the strike, farm labor officials said today.

Although only 40 of some 500 eastern harvesters arrived in Alberta before the strike, it is expected to be taken up by men laid off due to the strike.

The provincial government has asked regulations concerning trucks, under the province operating in Alberta for the duration of the rail strike.

Trucks from B.C. and Saskatchewan will be allowed to haul gasoline, oil and other petroleum products while rail transportation is stopped.

Northern transportation officials said the majority of winter supply for northern residents have arrived at their destination.

Only one large shipment is delayed due to the rail strike, a cargo for the north country coming from Winnipeg is stranded somewhere along the line.

Supplies for other northern points such as Yellowknife, Nunavut, White and Edmonton will be shipped by air transport.

A spokesman for the strike said there is no immediate danger of lack of supplies in any of the northern points.

Douglas Brown, Edmonton vice chairman of the strike, said the Brotherhood of Railway Employees and other Transport workers were meeting and W. H. Thompson, C.N.R. special representative, would meet with them in the Edmonton today.

Mayor P. Stewart had not arrived back from the Saskatoon conference of mayors at noon today and city officials did not know when to expect him.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, stranded in the Hub City of the rail strike were to be driven to Edmonton by car after the conference ended Thursday night.

City police are standing by ready to handle any violation of railway property, but no special police have been formed, said Chief Ray Jennings today.

In some centres, police are working with the railway to check for looting around railway property but have the problem of being stranded by the railway police, said the Chief.

'Peg Woman Cleared In Driving Charge'

A Winnipeg woman was absolved of dangerous driving today in connection with an accident Aug. 15 in which she fractured her jaw and three other people were injured.

The car driven by accused Wilma MacDonald, Winnipeg, crashed 45 feet into a telephone pole, and was involved in a head-on collision with a 1965 Ford at 118 avenue and 55 street by a second motorist.

The wife told of the accident car was smashed in and the side of MacDonald's car badly damaged.

Magistrate R. G. Main held that there was no evidence that the woman had broken a traffic law or that she was under the influence of liquor.

RAF Transport Down In Jungle

SINGAPORE, Aug. 25 (Reuters)—An RAF Dakota transport crashed today in the jungle in Kelantan State, Malaysia, with 31 passengers and crew aboard. Army patrols were sent to search the area.

Police reports said the plane crashed first when it hit the dense jungle floor.

The occupants were feared to have perished.

The place where the crash occurred was pinpointed by other aircraft and some search parties were expected to reach it tonight.

It Must Be Good

The belated convening of parliament to deal with the railway strike which is paralyzing the economy of Canada is fraught with certain dangers that the government must take pains to scrupulously avoid.

1. The special session must not be allowed to degenerate into an oratorical orgy wherein the spellbinders of the commonsense protest their patriotism and air their theories in interminable flowery words while the strike continues to do untold damage to the industries and individuals of this country.

2. The special session must not be pandered into passing hasty legislation that will accord anything short of justice to all parties to the dispute.

It must not be a session of endless talk.

It must not be a session of budgeons. Everyone is aware, as a matter of common knowledge, that a point of compromise between the viewpoint of the railways and the viewpoint of the workers undoubtedly exists somewhere. A point of compromise always exists.

It is the duty of the government to find that point of compromise before parliament convenes. It will be the duty of parliament, then, to approve it.

It would be nothing short of a national calamity if the government had no effective, clear-cut proposal to lay before parliament and if parliament had to hew a solution out of an endless forest of words.

After the immediate emergency is dealt with, it will be necessary to formulate some legislation to call a halt to the increase in the cost of living which is the foundation of most labor unrest.

It will be necessary, not only to settle this strike, but to make such economic adjustments as will render other strikes unprofitable.

Only a clear and complete government policy, making possible quick and decisive action by parliament, will ensure an irreducible delay in calling parliament together.

For Canadians are still asking why, if parliament is expected to settle the strike on Tuesday, it could not have been convened to settle the strike before it was allowed to happen.

Preserving Habits of Safety

There has been considerable jocular comment in Edmonton about the fact that bus and truck drivers continue to make the regular full stops at railway crossings even though the trains are laid away in both halves as a result of the strike.

There are two very excellent reasons why these stops should still be made.

The first is that such stops are still compulsory under the law and those who fail to make them when the trains are not running are just as guilty as those who fail to make them when the trains are in full operation.

The second reason is that safety habits must not be broken just because there is a temporary cessation in the cause of them.

Safety is largely a matter of habit. There are certain specific precautions that should always be taken under a certain set of circumstances. The first factor in safety is to learn to take these precautions automatically and as a matter of course.

Thus, truck and bus drivers have learned over a period of time to make these safety stops habitually.

Should they run through railway crossings without stopping, now that the tracks are empty, they would have to learn the safety habits all over again when the tracks are once more occupied.

It is to be hoped that police vigilance will guard carefully against any relaxation of the rule which will force full stops at railway crossings compulsory.

Russia Gets Down to Threats

The menacing quality of Jaki Malin's ultimatum to the United States, taken in conjunction with other facts, seems to leave no doubt that the Russian imperialists are bent on eventual war.

Malin said this "Continuation of military operations in Korea would lead, not to a localization of the conflict and the law of the jungle, but to a broadening of the conflict, fraught with serious consequences."

The United Nations security council is said to be studying the meaning and intent of these words.

They require study because they are open to two possible interpretations.

1. That they are merely typical Communist bait thrown with the intent to cause anxiety and fear.

2. That they contain a definite threat that unless the United Nations get out of Korea, Russia will open openly into the war.

Rough talk and big talk are not new in the scheme of Russian diplomacy. But there are other considerations that lend weight to the belief that Malin means exactly what he says.

Russia is bound to consider the effect of the Korean campaign on her European allies.

Once the North Koreans begin to be driven back, as they inevitably shall, Russia will begin to lose the respect of those European subject states which she dominates by fear.

The legend of her invincibility having been broken, there will be increasing danger of revolt, not only in the Balkans, but in Russia herself.

It is probably true that Russia does not want war until she achieves at least parity in atomic bombs which may, experts believe, in from two to five years.

This is true, the Korean expedition is merely a trial run to test her arms against those of the United States.

But she will weigh the value of atomic bomb until she achieves at least parity in atomic bombs which may, experts believe, in from two to five years.

If she detects any faltering in loyalty, she may decide that the latter is the most potent asset and decide to begin the world war within a few months.

Russia is faced with a tremendous decision.

Malin's threats make that decision look formidable.

Mail Delay of Three Years Makes Former

This morning's batch of mail included a letter from a man in Great Neck, L.I.

Dear Billy Rose:

As you probably noticed in the papers on August 7, a boy named Billy Rose, 17 years old, had found a sack of undelivered mail in the rear of a junked automobile on these streets.

That was in 1947, and in the past three years a lot of nice things have happened to us—a son, a pretty good job and a man of the mortgage paid off on our house.

None of which would have come about if the letter my wife sent me from Cleveland had arrived on schedule.

There Was Another Man

In it, you see, she confessed that she had been another man while I'd been away—nobody she cared anything about, just someone she'd happened along with.

Well, one of the pieces of mail was addressed to me, and I was from my wife, postmarked Cleveland, Ohio, and dated December 1947. But what I found in the letter was not much more than to say I'm sorry I lost you something.

Shortly after I was married in '48, the draft boards began taking anything with two to three years in them in Texas I was put on a boat and shipped off to it.

My wife called Oklahoma. By the time I got there, the shooting was over, so I guess I was better off than most of the boys, but it was a dull and muddy sort of life, and I was plenty glad when I was shipped back and discharged in '49.

Wife Gone To Cleveland

It was two days before Christmas when I arrived in Great Neck, and you can imagine how I felt when I found that my wife wasn't there waiting for me. Instead, there was a note on the table saying her mother was feeling well, and she'd be back to Cleveland, Ohio, in a few days—that is, if everything was all right.

This, of course, wasn't the hummering I'd been figuring on and I took it pretty hard. But I didn't know what to do. I could do about it—her mother didn't even have a phone—let alone a party line.

So I wrote her a letter and told her to hurry back as soon as she could. It wasn't until after New Year's, however, that my wife showed up.

Bridge

GENTLEMEN, WE ARE IN THE JUNGLE A THOUSAND MILES FROM CIVILIZATION. NO ONE CAN POSSIBLY LEARN OF OUR ACTIVITIES. OUR REPUTATIONS WILL BE PERFECTLY SECURE. NOW THEN, INSTEAD OF OUR DAILY RUBBER OF BRIDGE, WHAT DO YOU SAY WE PLAY A GAME OF CANASTA?

Editor, Bulletin.—A few months ago, our Minister of Defence, Mr. Claxton, said he was satisfied with the defenses of Canada. Now, the Government admits that there are no defenses to ward off an enemy and all that they have done to improve the situation, is remove the ally condition that our mate must have an eighth grade education or better to be a soldier.

Our leaders seem to be putting the fate of their party before that of our country. Always they have told us (and still do) that we need the few thousand trained soldiers that we have, to build up an army in case of danger.

Just suppose the Communists dropped 10,000 men on Edmonton at 4 a.m. tomorrow morning. Just what would Mr. Claxton and his bright new do about it? How long would it take them to get the 22nd and the Princess Pals there? Then when he got them there, would they get replacements? For years Canada has hidden behind Britain's navy. We have talked very big and made some very big promises about what we would do, these past few years.

It is about time we stood up and did something about backing up all that big talk.

Instead of spending large sums of money trying to lure men into the armed forces, let the government give out contracts for modern fighting equipment; this will at least give men a chance to break a sweat. Let the government use the power it has to call up two classes of men. They were very quick in slipping on taxes. They even interrupted our radio programs one night to tell us we had to pay out. Let us see some action now before it is too late.

How Strike Came To North Bay

(Columnist Jack Scott is on a cross-Canada tour with his family in automobile and trailer.—EDITOR.)

NORTH BAY, Ont.—This is a piece on how the strike's crippling strike came to North Bay, a town which owes its rise to the railways. It makes anything but a dramatic story.

If the strike came at all this morning it came to paraphrase T. S. Eliot, with a whimper and not with a bang. The Canadian National Telegraph office last night I was advised that my copy-bureau in this city had a strike in the railway depots were blacked out.

Confident of Settlement

A lonely baggage man at the station of the Ontario Northland Railway said: "Nobe, nobody. Everybody home listening to the radio, it's on the casualty list."

By this time, of course, it will be known if this quiet optimism was justified. You can be sure that if North Bay is the first of a strike this morning with the rest of the country it came as a great disillusionment in the past years in spite of the days and weeks of stalemate.

One of the strongest railways in the country, as colorful, erratic and esteemed as P.C.'s Pacific Great Eastern, is on the casualty list.

This is the CNR's "Polar Bear" which runs 200 miles through the northern Ontario tundra to the coast of Hudson Bay. The little train makes its way north slowly on a schedule that, like the P.C., refuses to take itself seriously.

Desperation Near At Hand

"The head office says with a cheerful 'it leaves Cochrane about 100 miles north of here, at 10:15 a.m. and arrives at Moosemen at 11:30 a.m.," said one of the conductors as I put my accurate record.

"I don't know, don't worry, the train goes through places where appealing names as Burrowsville, Scott's Bay, and Onanawaka, but it will stop wherever there are people. The Cree tribes, its biggest customers, frequently get off and on the train."

Until now, all this has seemed something of a private joke, but now it is a new realization that a long corridor to the north has come to rely on the "Polar Bear."

One authority estimated Monday that more than 25,000 persons in communities across the north of Canada are dependent on the train for food, fuel and gasoline and that the pinch could grow into a famine strip if the strike were prolonged.

Everything was ready for an hour's strike. But nobody apparently was ready to believe it.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

History repeats itself. An archeologist reported that Egyptian tombs contained millions of years ago.

Some Monday mornings we feel like a million dollars—with a million dollars in the bank and hidden taxes already deducted.

Under its daily heading "Fire Call," a California paper reported that a straight fire relic, came from Trans-Canada Air Lines office here.

There has been no rush to order freight space or book seats.

Keep Peace Or Perish

Editor, Bulletin.—It was amazing to read in your August 17th editorial about "the number of normal, kindly and tolerant people who are coming to the extreme view that . . . if a devalued and crippling attack on Russia (with atom bombs) were to kill 25,000,000 people, it would be a good moral economy."

You agree "it seems a brutal viewpoint" but extenuate it on grounds that "it is certain practical considerations and so many people adhere to it."

Only a few years ago we hung war criminals whose crimes against humanity were easily in comparison to the mad dog views of these "kindly people" who crave to murder off 25,000,000 Russians in one dastardly, sneak attack.

The "practical considerations" of this "good moral economy" is that such an attack, without reason or warning, would be a "Christian democracy: the free nation and what have you?"

War Creates Big Problems

MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—(UPI)—The bank of Montreal said today that the Korean war had put Canadian business on the spot.

The bank said in its monthly review for August that it was inevitable that Canada, "a major world source of strategic materials and an important potential producer of military items, will be drawn into international developments."

"This prospect is already being reflected in the pulse of the Canadian economy," the review said. "Business is no longer as usual."

It added that the Canadian economy, "which up to June 24 had been one of current and prospective peacetime boom," had changed overnight. It said it had become "one of anxious reappraisal of position in the face of contingencies that are the more ominous in that they cannot be clearly foreseen."

ALREADY AT PEAK
The bank said increasing demands on industry would pose nationwide problems because Canada this year already was operating at a peak in the first half of 1950.

"Economic mobilization, although partial in extent and gradual in incidence, will superimpose on this already tight situation a critical margin of demand that will give rise to manifold new problems," the bank said.

Newspaper Cuts Forced By Strike

Some U.S. Papers Worry About Newsprint Supplies

NEW YORK, August 25.—(AP)—Canada's railroad strike is forcing some American publishers to cut down the size of their newspapers.

A few dailies already have trimmed their news columns and advertising space. Some are planning a cutback if the strike persists. Many are unaffected by the Dominion rail walkout that began Tuesday. They got their newsprint by water or their supply comes from within the United States.

But 90 per cent of the newsprint used in the United States comes from the Dominion.

News has been heavy in recent weeks. It has been a time when the newspaper publisher would like to have plenty of news to supply the demands of his readers.

PUBLISHERS TOLD
On the eve of the Canadian rail strike, Cranston Williams, general manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, advised members to check their stocks.

He said if the strike lasted a week most Canadian newsprint mills would be forced to shut down for lack of storage space.

The first effects were felt by the publishers this week. The Omaha World-Herald cut its morning paper news from 100 columns to 80 and its afternoon papers news from 114 to 97 columns, effective today.

Space for national and local advertising was cut roughly 50 per cent and less classified advertising was in the offing.

Many papers called the situation critical, and are checking supply situation daily. Some thought they could go two weeks. Some thought they hold out a month.

SOME LUCKIER
There were those, too, who weren't planning any cut-backs and didn't anticipate the shortage would hit them.

The Chicago Tribune commented: "No curtailment plans of any sort. Business as usual."

New York City papers said most of their newsprint was arriving by water. The Chicago News said it was supplied by water transportation. The Washington Post said it received its paper from Nova Scotia by boat.

But for those dependent upon rail transportation from Canada for their supplies, the situation was serious.

The American Newspaper Publishers Association estimated it could handle no more than 40 days supply on hand or in transit at the end of July.

With Canadian mills shut down by lack of Storage space, it would be a little while, even after the rail strike ended, before the mills could roll out newsprint in sufficient quantities to get the stock built up again.

Enteritis Hits Near Montreal

MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—(CPI)—A large proportion of suburban Valois' 1,500 residents were reported yesterday stricken with enteritis.

Dr. Hubert Tanager, health officer for the town bordering Lake St. Louis about 15 miles west of Montreal, described the disease as a seasonal malady, with symptoms of nausea and cramps.

The said 50 cases have been reported but stated many cases were not reported because of their mildness.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas
HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—It's always a pleasure to have a Humphrey Bogart picture in the works so I can hear what the old boy is sounding off about these days.

Bogart has an opinion about everything, including his employer, national affairs and the movies among them, the actor claims.

"People would laugh you off the screen if you tried to play one of those tough guys in pictures of 10 and 15 years ago."

Bogart himself hasn't played a gangster since "High Sierra" in 1941. "I don't think I could go back to the old tricks—the narrowed eyes, the drawn cheeks, the tight lips," he said.

Gov't Plans Program For Any Attack

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—(CP)—In a brief one-day meeting, federal and provincial authorities yesterday mapped out a broad program of preparation for enemy attack.

They agreed on a division of responsibility among federal, provincial and municipal governments and thus launched a series of moves designed to get all Canadians ready for the worst that may come.

Eventually, spokesmen at the conference said, the master plan will involve just about every Canadian, although it will be some months before large-scale training can be started.

The first job will be to train key civilian personnel and then build around them local organizations.

SPECIAL SCHOOL

Immediate steps will be established within the next few weeks on a special school on atomic warfare either at Camp Borden, Ont., or Meaford, Ont., to train doctors and others.

Defence Minister Claxton, who set the background for the move in his address to the opening sessions of the conference today, stressed that Canada is going through weeks of great crisis which may well show whether Russia will touch off a third world war.

Mr. Claxton issued a statement after the conference in which he said there was no disagreement on any major issue.

He said, too, that a continuing Dominion-provincial advisory committee on civil defence is being established, and that the Federal government will issue a manual of instruction on civil defence problems.

CIVIL DEFENCE

The question of responsibility for civil defence in emergency will be further studied, as will the question of financial responsibility for key personnel and equipment.

The resulting organizations will also be able to cope with such disasters as the Manitoba floods this spring. One principle recognized at the conference was that all the organizations should come under the civilian authority.

The plans involve a division of the nation into areas—likely target areas: a "radius" are surrounding them, and reception areas, into which casualties could be evacuated.

CNE Expects Best Crowds

TORONTO, Aug. 25.—(CP)—The gates swung open today for the 71st Canadian National Exhibition, and officials are confident that by the time it closes Sept. 9 its attendance will top the record high of 2,600,000 in 1949.

The turnstiles began clicking at 8 a.m. 4½ hours before the formal opening by Trade Minister H. J. Laurier, designated in Ottawa by the railway strike.

General Manager Elwood Hughes is confident that the rail strike will not stand in the way of an attendance record.

"The only way that the rail strike is going to affect us is that we will not exceed last year's record by as much," he said on the eve of the opening.

DANNY KAYE

He is one of the nightly grandstand shows featuring Canadian Danny Kaye, as one of the major attractions.

And there are hosts of others. There is a sports program, Canadian and international championship tournaments, Canadian water skiing championships, amateur and professional swimming competitions, motorcycle racing, horse show, polo, flycatching and other events.

The big buildings are filled with commercial and other displays. There's a big cattle show with prizes aggregating $24,000, and a horse show as well.

Bomber Has Ten Engines

Special to The Bulletin

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 25.—(UP)—A new model B-36 super-bomber, the first military plane in the world with 10 engines, rolled down Consolidated Vultee's assembly line today.

The new version of the monstrous A-bomb carrier has horsepower equalling 420 average automobile engines and a service ceiling of "over 45,000 feet," making them invulnerable from the ground.

The ship develops almost 45,000 horsepower. From each of the six engines comes a 3,500 horsepower pump and each jet is rated at 3,500 pounds of static thrust.

The air force disclosed the maximum speed of the B-36D is to be "more than 430 miles per hour." The first B-36D driven only by propellers, were rated at "more than 300 miles an hour."

The air force has accepted the new ships after a year of flight tests by Convair, a company spokesmen said.

In addition, earlier models of the B-36 are being returned to the plant here for installation of jet engines and other performance-improving modifications.

The exact number of B-36s being built is a military secret. However, Convair recently received a "letter of intent" from the air force calling for an undetermined number of the big ships.

Again Time For Funerals In Kentucky

MIDDLESBORO, Ky. —(UPI)—It's funeral time back in the hills of Kentucky and Virginia.

This is the time of year when the time of the dead gather to hear the funerals read, sing hymns, and say a final prayer to relatives who died months or even years ago.

The age-old custom, peculiar to the southern hills, has gone on in the southern part of Kentucky ever since its settlement.

The hill people conduct services for the dead before burial, but this is termed merely "reading over the dead" and the real funeral is postponed until the entire clan can gather to conduct that entire religious service, usually the next year.

Funerals for people who died in late summer, fall or winter usually are preached during the following summer. Those who die during the spring months seldom have their funerals preached before the following spring.

Families living around graveyards open their doors to the deceased kinsmen, who make the long trips at times set by the heads of the families. Some come from as far as the State of Washington now that they have automobiles for travel.

Bombs Bare Ancient Fort Of Romans

LONDON —(UPI)—Excavations in an area flattened by a bomb-bomb in the Second World War have exposed another buried treasure of London's unwritten history.

The archaeological discovery has been identified as a Roman fort of the A.D. 160s. Members of the London Roman and Medieval excavations, Cancell, directing the work, believe the find will be established as the city's earliest military installation, with a history probably 1,000 years older than London Tower.

It confirmed, they say, it would mean the rewriting of the story of the defenses of Roman London.

Workers, who have been probing the extensive area of devastation, came across the long-buried citadel under the present site of Moorgate, in the shadows of St. Paul's cathedral.

Excavators were concentrating on tracing the course of a Roman wall and buried gravel road previously uncovered, when they suddenly came upon the fort. Covering the area of approximately 11 acres, it was found to be of rectangular construction, much along the pattern of similar military stations unearthed on the continent and in western and northern Britain.

W. F. Grimes, keeper of the London museum and honorary director of the excavations, said the date of the fort could not be positively fixed pending detailed study of the finds associated with different parts of the ancient defenses. A inner wall, however, has been approximately dated by an A.D. 140 coin found embedded in its mortar.

"One of them just pulled out a ventilator fan and boy eliminating in through the hole," she said. "Another man is just standing on the corner."

Canada Loses Place As Britain's Top Grocer

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—(UPI)—New Zealand has replaced Canada as Britain's No. 1 source of foodstuffs, the trade department revealed today, and all down the line the trade picture between Canada and England did not look bright at the half-year mark.

A report from London showed that New Zealand sold $224,447,000 worth of food to the United Kingdom during the first six months of the year. During the same period Canada exported some $184,000,000 worth of food.

It was the first time Canada had not sold other individual nations as the chief supplier of Britain's food. Canada shipped 14,580,440 tons of food to the United Kingdom during the period. This was approximately 500,000 tons less than during the same period in 1959 and nearly 750,000 tons less than in 1948.

FROM DEVALUATION

Trade experts said the devaluation of the British pound sterling and the British effort to conserve her dollar supply accounted for the decline.

Food shipments to Britain from Canada included grain, fruit, meat, apples, dairy and poultry products and canned salmon.

In other lines of trade the unfavourable shift of British buying to other countries was noted.

Nickel ore shipments to Britain were down 36 per cent; wood and timber sales were down four per cent; seed exports dropped nearly 80 per cent; steel and iron exports were running 33 per cent behind 1949 figures, and lead ore exports were down more than 50 per cent.

In some fields Britain was buying from other nations to conserve dollars, experts said. In other commodities the demand in the United Kingdom was dropping.

HEARST, Ont., August 25.—(CP)—Three Port Arthur railway workers, stranded at Hornesby by the strike of their fellow employees, said today they walked 38 miles through dense northern Ontario bush to get away from that stranded community.

Alex MacMillan, 42, engineer, and Irvia McMillan, 33, brakeman, said they finally were picked up at One South of the by the crew of an Algonquin Central Railway freight train. The Algonquin Central is not affected by the strike.

MacMillan said an estimated 2,500 persons, including 75 transient railway workers and about 12 passengers of a westbound train stranded at the strike dead-end, are virtually isolated at Hornesby.

Men walking in all directions to get out of Hornesby, MacMillan said. One party is trying to get to Horns Bay, 30 miles south. Others are headed for Long Lake, 100 miles west, others to Highway 11, 40 miles north.

MacMillan said he and his companions were asked to try to arrange for an aircraft to go to Hornesby to pick up the stranded train passengers and to take in supplies.

Railwaymen Tramp 38 Miles Through Bush

HEARST, Ont., August 25.—(CP)—Three Port Arthur railway workers, stranded at Hornesby by the strike of their fellow employees, said today they walked 38 miles through dense northern Ontario bush to get away from that stranded community.

Alex MacMillan, 42, engineer, and Irvia McMillan, 33, brakeman, said they finally were picked up at One South of the by the crew of an Algonquin Central Railway freight train. The Algonquin Central is not affected by the strike.

MacMillan said an estimated 2,500 persons, including 75 transient railway workers and about 12 passengers of a westbound train stranded at the strike dead-end, are virtually isolated at Hornesby.

Men walking in all directions to get out of Hornesby, MacMillan said. One party is trying to get to Horns Bay, 30 miles south. Others are headed for Long Lake, 100 miles west, others to Highway 11, 40 miles north.

MacMillan said he and his companions were asked to try to arrange for an aircraft to go to Hornesby to pick up the stranded train passengers and to take in supplies.

The New Ambrose J. Moran

Ambrose J. Moran is a changed man from what he was in the days when the name Ambrose J. Moran was synonymous with hockey and after-hours hilarity and whoopee-do.

Now strictly off the beer—and not a whit hesitant about admitting that "once I was a lame-brain about the stuff"—Ambrose J. is satisfied with whatever notoriety may come his way as a result of umpiring night baseball games.

However he still clings tenaciously to his membership card in the Society For The Advancement Of Those Who Like To Stay Up Until All Hours, Cutting Up Old Tunes.

And some of those old tunes—particularly as they have to do with Ambrose J.—bear cutting up, again and again.

There was the time, with the Western Canada Hockey League season just concluded, when Ambrose J. and his Regina Cap teammates spent the night on the bank of the river that flows through the Saskatchewan capital, huddled under the Moran overcoat, trying to keep warm in the semi-freezing weather.

Somewhere Moran had saved up a few bucks, against the off-season, and his two friends, both having long since blown their bundles, weren't for letting the burly defenseman out of their sight.

And Ambrose J., well aware that he'd have a couple of free-lancers on his hands indefinitely (meaning until he ran out of money) if he admitted being in the chips, pretended that he, too, was fresh out.

"We scrounged a few beers during that day," Ambrose J. tells it now. "I was a little tight, but I'm not pretending to be as broke as they are."

Even when it came time to decide where to spend the night, Moran played the pumper. So, in that they had no money for a flop, it was easily to agree that the next best thing was to sleep in the open.

Down to the river bank the trio headed. Ambrose J. peeled off his coat, they all snuggled under it for warmth. "I didn't see much of them after that," Ambrose J. recounts, with a chuckle. "That night under the stars seemed to convince them that I really was as broke as they were. 'They went looking for another sucker the next day.'"

Then there was the time when Duke's Keats, a bitter rival of Ambrose J. in their playing days, was intent on reorganizing the Western Canada League.

Keats was hard at it, mulling a club to represent Edmonton, and at the same time beating his brains out, trying to get the league to rolling in other centres as well.

Among those who wrote him, asking for a tryout, was big, burly Ambrose J. Moran.

The letter opened on a "My dear Duke" note. It was a plea for "a chance to make my mark on the world." The writer guaranteed he'd be available in time for the first workout.

It was signed "Your friend, Ambrose J. Moran."

The letter was written from the Brandon jail. Mr. Moran had been locked up for somehow "accidental, it was" slugging a cop.

Once his playing days were over and he had turned to officiating both hockey and baseball, Moran showed many times that he meant to run any game in which he was calling the play.

Once, while umpiring a Northern League contest, he cleared one of the team benches off all players not actually in the game.

"We weren't asking nothing," one of those being bounced protested, with some vigor. The Moran retort was a classic.

"I'm not chainin' yuh for what you sayin'. It's for what you're thinkin'."

He made it stick, yuh.

Actually Ambrose J. is a changed man, and still is, a highly capable umpire. "They" mean the higher minors, look more than one look at him while he was in the Northern circuit.

But, as Ambrose J. admits today: "I just couldn't leave the stuff alone."

Now he can, though. Which is the nicest thing which could be written about this former truly great hockey player.

MAN with claw hammer is John Ducey, local baseball promoter. Normally a white collar type, Ducey turned to manual labor yesterday as wrecking crews prepared to completely demolish the Renfrew Park grandstand. A $35,000 fire almost entirely razed the 17-year-old stand last Friday night.

East End Loses Swim Trophy

By Garth Hopkins

East End swimming club fell short of its hopes last night at the Fred trophy gala held in the West End pool. The east enders were shooting for their second straight win of the coveted cup but placed last the three-team race with 41 points.

South Side swimmers won the trophy by obtaining a total of 74 points. West End was second with 58.

The South Side kickers came up with a strong team, winning 16 of the 27 events. Big points getter for the winners was talented Marine Smith, the gas with the English accent.

Stagnant Margot placed first in the 100 yard breast stroke, the 100 yard free stroke and the 200 yard free stroke.

Ted Leibel and Doris Elliott scored the majority of the East End points.

West End club led in points during the early part of the meet but the absence of Marie Lee, starry senior swimmer, accounted for some of the power needed to clinch victory.

Star life learned hours before the meet that she had been suspended for 30 days pending investigation of her amateur status. Ned Feehan's diving wasn't exactly up to par but he did manage to outpoint Ted Leibel in the men's diving event.

Tonight the West End pool will sponsor a city swimming championship gala. First event gets under way at 8 o'clock.

More Baby Teeth

Mrs. K. H. Williams, who lives at 11218 87 street has a little girl who cut an eye tooth at nine weeks. Personally I miss the significance of kiddies being born with teeth or cutting them right out the gum. To me it was far more important when I had to fork over 250 bucks for a set of stone teeth.

But Mrs. Williams says it's very unusual for babies to have teeth at nine weeks and especially if they are eye teeth.

Furthermore Mrs. Williams says her baby is even luckier than baby Allan Gordon Dredge.

Allan Gordon Dredge was the Edmonton baby born on Aug. 23 with two teeth plus two great grandmothers and two great grandfathers.

Baby girl Williams has three great grandmothers, one great grandfather, two grandmothers, one grandfather and 54 great aunts.

The baby is seven months old today. Happy birthday to you girlie. It's a cinch you'll get plenty of advice.

The strike has sure slowed things down out at the stockyards. One of our boys called the stockyards yesterday to see how things were going. Here's the sleepy answer:

"It's as quiet as the morgue. We'd count sheep to keep awake only there aren't any sheep to count."

We've an orchid tonight for the contractor who rained out that tunnel east of the Macdonald extension.

Funny how rain always seems a lot wetter when it comes through a roof than when you're out in the open.

Knights at Play

Knights of Columbus had their annual golf tournament at Mayfair yesterday. They had the course to themselves for the afternoon and it was a good thing too.

The winner's score would have been high for a 26-hole final.

Cal Pickles reports that George Roberts won. Nobody else knew enough about golf to dispute him.

Roberts had a low gross of 197.4 for 18 holes in three years; he hopes to challenge The Duke of Windsor who goes around in a sizzling 50.

Dr. Sereda was ruled winner of another competition Norman McIntyre wasn't surprised at Sereda's victory, said McIntyre: "These surgeons are sharp operators."

Father Burke journeyed all the way from Vegreville to compete. He's not quite sure why he did it.

Ralph Morgan won a prize for being the best-dressed golfer, thanks to Cal Pickles and the new style payment plan. Jimmy Graham should stick to hockey.

Johnny Wheelan of the Gas Company was the most honest golfer. He turned in a score of 237. He may play for England in the next cricket test match.

Want some kittens? See Al "Silver" Smith of 9545 93 avenue. Al's very generous. He'll charge you a cent for four fluffy kittens. As a matter of fact he'll throw in the mama cat.

A grand goodnight to all and especially to people who are honest at golf.

Test Shows 'Hot' Oil Reef Near City

Possibility of a new oil-bearing reef west of the city was shown today by a test which showed a successful drillstem test at California Standard Acheson well.

The test was run between the depths of 4202 and 4252 feet and flowed at the rate of 700 barrels a day.

The test was run by the California Standard Acheson well, which is owned by the California Standard Acheson well.

Striking Worker Isn't Lonesome at Home

IRISHMEN LOVE POTATOES and it's a good thing, says Mrs. Alex Devin, 8026-70 avenue, mother of eight bright-eyed Irish young 'uns. Father is CNR freight stover and one of thousands involved in nation-wide rail strike. "We have a garden full of fresh vegetables and lots of good, filling potatoes. So we're content to skimp on meat while Dad's out picketing," she explains. Seven pretty Devin sisters and baby Alex think it's great to have their Dad home during day.

Also drawing fire was Donald Gordon, CNR president.

Another source of some of the top men in the local strike scene:

MAJOR CAUSE ... the government is entirely to blame for the major cause of this serious situation in its refusal to control prices." Archie Richardson, chairman of the international central strike committee in Edmonton.

"Parliament should have been called sooner. We doubt if Donald Gordon is the right man for the job," Len Foster, vice-chairman of the international strike committee.

"The government's present attitude forces us to put all our eggs in one basket," said Foster.

"The government had 14 months warning. It should have been able to handle the problem without such drastic measures," said Foster.

The No. 27 well, bottomed at 5400 feet, raised a potential of 5.5 million barrels daily during a 30-hour test while the No. 27 well also has an open flow of 1,500 barrels per day. Depth was 5,300 feet.

FINANCE BRIEFS
Manitoba Floats $15 Million Debentures at Better Price

WINNIPEG.—(CP)—Premier D. Campbell yesterday announced sale of $15,000,000 in Manitoba debentures at 99 1/2.

He said the price is the best received by Manitoba in three years and that the interest rate is .302 per cent—compared with 3.5 per cent on issues of this year by other provinces.

The price secured for this new issue reflects continued confidence in the financial policies of Manitoba in spite of flood this spring and the present unsettled Canadian and international situation, Premier Campbell said.

The issue was sold by tender to syndicate headed by Wood Gundy and Co. Proceeds will be used to retire treasury bills.

BEGINA.—(UPI)—A geological report made for the Saskatchewan government says radioactive minerals of two types occur in the Black Lake area of northern Saskatchewan.

M. E. Hirschevich, who made the survey, says vein deposits of pitchblende and radioactive minerals occur in this region. The pitchblende deposits are associated with major faults or breaks. He advised prospectors to examine these faults carefully.

In making the report, the geologist indicated that the pitchblende uranium ore would have a bearing on development of peatmoss deposits in northern Saskatchewan. Since the report was written, the price has been raised from $2.75 a pound to a maximum of six dollars a pound.

Prince Valiant

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
by Harold R. Foster

Synopsis: BECAUSE AGUAR WAS A WISE KING HE LISTENED TO ALETA'S WAR PLANS. BECAUSE ALETA KNEW NOTHING OF WARFARE HER TACTICS THREW THE ENEMY PLANS AWRY. THEN, BECAUSE SHE SAW NO NEED FOR HATING ANYONE, SHE WON OVER HER ENEMIES.

STATESMEN WOULD HAVE TAKEN MONTHS TO DRAW UP A PEACE TREATY, BUT ALETA ENDED IT ALL IN ONE SENTENCE. (WE GIVE IT HERE, BUT ONLY A MARRIED MAN WILL BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND IT)

"YOU ARE TO LEAVE RIGHT AWAY, SIR, I AM SORRY TO SEE YOU LEAVE, DEAR, JUST WHEN WE WERE GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER BUT THE MEN OF THULE HAVE RETURNED AND THE PASS IS CLEAR AND IF YOU HURRY THE PLANTING CAN BE FINISHED AND FAMINE AVERTED THIS WINTER AND DO BE CAREFUL CROSSING THE HILLS AND WRAP THE BABY UP WELL AND YOU MUST VISIT ME THIS SUMMER AND I'LL SEND YOU MY DRESSMAKER AS SOON AS SHE HAS FINISHED MY SUMMER THINGS GOOD-BYE SIR GOOD-BYE DEAR AND OH YOU FAT LITTLE RASCAL YOU!"

NOW THAT AN ARROGANT YOUNG KING HAS BEEN HUMILED, HIS OUTRAGED QUEEN NO LONGER ACCORDS HIM A REGAL OFFER. GENTLY, BUT FIRMLY SHE TAKES THE FOUNDLING INCOMPETENT BY THE HAND AND LEADS HIM OUT OF OUR STORY.

ON THE HEAVING DECK OF A GREAT DRAGONSHIP TWO WARRIORS ARE EXCHANGING BRUISES WITH GREAT AROAR. THEN THEY SIT DOWN, PANTING AND UNLACE EACH OTHER'S SWORDSMANSHIP. FOR THESE MEN ARE WARRIORS AND LIKE PROFESSIONAL ATHLETES MUST BE CONSTANTLY TRAINING. THEY ARE PRINCE VALANT, JARL EGIL, RUFUS REGAN AND YOUNG ARF!

WHEN YOU LEARN THAT SUCH IS THE CASE, YOU WILL BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND THE STORY OF THE BULLETIN DAILY.

Our transparencies of the trip are back, Nina!

We must have the folks in for a show, Skeezix!

I haven't any lecture prepared, folks. The pictures will have to speak for themselves.

I didn't notice it then, but all the signs in this town were backwards.

You've got the slide turned around, Poppy.

This is the ghost town of Black Mesa—Squint's dude ranch. It really is on the level.

Here we are, off on a pack trip. One horse moved.

Here's one Nina took of me. Nice boots, aren't they?

Sorry!

I couldn't figure this one out, but isn't it beautiful color?

Nina, I don't know when you took this one of me lying on a rock.

Oh, here's the way it's supposed to be!

Here's where we came in! Wait, Corky! That one got back into the wrong pile.
